

Top Ten Things to Do In Chapel Hill, Carrboro and Hillsborough in 2010.

- 1. Experience BASKETBALL, whether it's at the Carolina Basketball Museum or a UNC home game. Log on to tarheelblue.com for information and availability.
- 2. Attend The NC Comedy Arts Festival, the largest comedy festival in the Southern U.S. featuring improv and standup comedy. Held in Carrboro in February.
<http://www.nccomedyarts.com>
- 3. Rediscover Franklin Street and its new shops and restaurants including Kildare's, FRANK arts collective, Top of the Hill's expanded banquet space, and Med Deli's new bakery.
- 4. Discover Hillsborough's growing arts scene. Four galleries adorn Churton Street and a new downtown library, downtown book store and favorite chocolate and wine shops make Hillsborough a must see destination in 2010.
<http://www.historichillsborough.org>
- 5. Walk Carrboro at www.walkcarrboro.com
- 6. Shop University Mall in Chapel Hill. It has a whole new look and feel and stores to delight even the most discriminating of shoppers.
<http://www.universitymallnc.com>
- 7. Visit the new look North Carolina Botanical Garden and its 29,000 square foot "green" education center with new gift shop. Walk the trails and roam the display gardens. You'll always find a "what's in bloom" list as you enter the garden. <http://ncbg.unc.edu>
- 8. Take yourself out to the ball game. The new Bryson Field at Boshamer Stadium brings an incredible upgrade to the Carolina Baseball Experience. visit tarheelblue.com and click baseball.
- 9. Visit the new East 54 complex including four new restaurants, a hotel opening in May and continual outdoor entertainment.
www.East54.com
- 10. EAT. A new food lover's guide to Chapel Hill with Carrboro and Hillsborough makes it fun and easy. And it's just $5.00. Call 919-968-2060 for your copy.

Chapel Hill
WITH CARRBORO & HILLSBOROUGH
The Feeling Never Leaves You

Chapel Hill / Orange County Visitors Bureau • 501 West Franklin Street
Chapel Hill, NC 27516 • 888.968.2060